

Document your achievements and success.

This will provide clearer insights of the value you contribute to a team.

Get to know other teams within the organisation.

Networking with other teams in an organisation can open windows to learning from one another as well as collaboration opportunities.

Speak up in team meetings.

Sharing and voicing your ideas during meetings will help you gain confidence and make you a memorable figure. Assess yourself and create challenges for yourself.

Identifying where you stand and going above and beyond to grow will help you increase your productivity and motivation!

